

Checklist for AI security

- I know where and how to fact-check the AI tool's outputs.
- I have provided training to all staff on responsible use of AI.
- I have ensured the AI tool I am using is committed to security and has a strong process in place to notify us if there is a security incident.
- I have an incident response plan in place in case there is a security-related incident with the AI tool.

Incident response plan template - Own Your Online